

Garwell-road, London. These pipes are well adapted for garden, conveying liquid manure, reaching over any distance and being laid in any position. They are made of sheet waterproof and flexible pipe is required. Hot liquids or steam do not injure them; they are, therefore, much used for shower baths, as they require no oil or dressing when out of use, and are equally suitable for conveying cold water, and are equally in evidence for converting hot or cold water to steam water-heaters and prima may be had on application to the Messrs. H.B. Valsundien India-Rubber Goods-House, 10, India Road, London, E.C.4, who will send you a list of their stock of pipes and water-taps. All orders or letters sent to J. L. Hancock, Garwell-road, Garwell-road, London
